HOME NEWSPAPER

We Like the City Dailies
But Love the Old Papers.

The Home newspaper is the first paper in the eyes of everybody. It has a peculiar charm, a peculiar fascination, is dearer to the hearts of the people than any other no matter how large or superior in the make-up.
Whether he is a farmer or a laborer
living in or near a small town or city, or a New York millionaire, the first and best paper to him is the one printed nearest home. What do the big New York dailies amount to compared to the Republic or the Mountain Visitor to the humble residents of the parts where these small publications may be gotten out? While they may take some of the big dailies, and many of them do, yet the one they read first and with the most interest is the one printed by their own people in their neighborhood. There is something attractive in the big hand-set type,
something pleasing to their taste in the unique items about them and their neighbors.

The home newspaper comes first always. Everybody scans every column to see if their name appears in any way. Perchance they may not have the slightest idea that they will print a kind of gambling nature, which everyone possesses, which leads them on. And then if they spy their names mentioned in a pleasant way, though they may feel displeasure, and say, "I wish it hadn't been done," it is to the lucky individual a source of great pleasure.

All men to some extent are vain and conceited, and though it is developed to a greater degree in some than in others, it would be a rare person indeed that had none of it at all. Each bit of local gossip is read in the local paper. What are you what kind of a dress Miss Marie Antione of another place wore to a ball? It matters not to you. But get your home paper and see a description of your daughter's trousseau and you will read every line.
Yes, every bit of local gossip in the home paper is read and discussed. Sometimes a birth, sometimes a death, sometimes a marriage. No matter what it is, every name mentioned seems familiar to all, and hence for this reason the home paper
fills a place where that of other cities can never claim prestige. Though the latter may be better and more meritorious, they must seek their Joplin's Appointment Hung up.

The nomination of Frank W. Joplin, who was appointed postmaster at Elizabethtown on the 5th of last April vice Mrs. Emily T. Helm, whose commission expired, is still hung up in the Senate, although nearly all the postmasters appointed during the session have been confirmed. It is understood that Joplin's confirmation is delayed because of Senator Black-burn's absence. If the senior Senator were here and express a desire for action on Joplin's nomination he would get it. It was stated at Postoffice Department this afternoon that if Joplin should be rejected Mrs. Helm, whom he succeeded, would not resume the duties of postmaster, but that the President would have to make another appointment. Of course he could reappoint Mrs. Helm
if he so desired.—[Wash. Cor. Courier Journal.]

Cure for Headache.
As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence.
We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy
a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Only

A SERIOUS RIVALRY.
Three Committees on Elections and One Committee Room Causes Complications.
The creation of three committees on elections in the house of representatives has raised a serious question among the respective chairmen where the committees are to meet. All of them hold that there is a dead level of equality among them as to rank and that one is as much entitled to the regular committee room as the other. As the accommodations at the capitol are limited the question of precedence
threatens to become an ominous problem, and at last accounts the speaker
had been appealed to for his judgment.

Opal Mines Shut Down.
All of the large opal mines at Queretaro, Mex., from which the principal supply of those stones in Mexico has been obtained, have closed down, and they will remain inactive for an indefinite period. The owners of the mines claim that the market is flooded with opals, and that it does not pay to work the properties.

Mexican Oranges and Lemons.
The exportation of Mexican oranges
and lemons during the past two months
has reached large proportions. Several hundred car loads of the fruit
have passed through San Antonio, Tex., during the past few weeks, enroute to St. Louis, Chicago and eastern markets.

is said to be that at Shipley, in Sussex.
It will repeat 21 syllables.

DOG BRINGS THE PARDON.

He Drops the Precious Document at the Feet of the Convict.
It was a dog that brought liberty to a convict in the Kentucky penitentiary recently. The intelligent brute acted as a messenger between Gov. Brown and the felon, carrying the pardon in its mouth from the executive mansion
to the prison and, after gaining admittance, to the recipient of clemency himself. The dog is the property of the governor, and the convict is O. G. Garden, of Louisville, who was sentenced two years ago to serve a term of eight years for manslaughter.
For some time Garden has been employed as a "trusty" at the executive

THE BEARER OF GLAD TIDINGS.

mansion, doing chores and running errands. The dog, a fine-looking specimen of the shepherd breed, is a family
pet and is unusually intelligent.
It was a part of Garden's duties
to look after the animal, and they came to be fast friends. When the pardon was opened in the morning
the collie was there to meet his convict friend and accompany him to the mansion. At night he returned with his striped playmate to the grim portals.
When the pardon was made out it was suggested that the dog be permitted to carry the welcome of freedom to his devoted friend. The paper was inclosed in a stout envelope and given to the animal, which was told to go to the penitentiary. With a wag of its tail it left the mansion and ran down the old accustomed route to the prison. A telephone message apprised the guards of his coming and he was admitted without delay.

Garden was in the yard patiently awaiting the arrival of the governor's messenger, never dreaming that the dog had been selected. Catching sight of the well-known face the dog ran up to the convict and laid the envelope at his feet. The glad cry of happy surprise that the overjoyed prisoner gave went to catching up the official envelope and tearing it open was re-echoed by a succession of joyous barks from the four-footed harbingers of good tidings.

A PORCINE DRUNKARD.

Kentucky Animal That Gossies Whisky
from a Bucket.
Just across the line from Laurens-burg, Ky., in Mercer county, there is a large distillery, owned by one of that county's most reputable and influential citizens. This man made a discovery a few days since the like of which was never heard of before. He has for many years owned a white pig, of the Ber-shire variety, which was the pet of the entire family. The pig, instead of staying around the house, made his home constantly in the large whisky warehouse near by, and was fed at this place,
never leaving except for a few moments at a time. About three months ago the distiller noticed that the nose of his pet was taking on a crimson hue. He thought rather strangely of this, but didn't give the matter much attention.

ON A BIT OF A BOOZE.

thinking that possibly the pig's nose
had been hurt in some way.
Last Sunday he had occasion to pass the distillery, and discovered that its nose was now perfectly red,
and it seemed very drowsy. He at once came to the conclusion, which proved to be true, that the pig was a confirmed drunkard of the worst type. It was a custom at the distillery when a leak was found to place a tin bucket under the barrel and catch the drops to stop the leakage. This whisky was given to the hands at the warehouse, and they were never in a great hurry to repair the barrel. Knowing that the pig could get whisky in no other way except out of these buckets, he was watched and seen to go to a bucket and drink at least a quart, after which he would smack his jaws together and utter a satisfied grunt. The distiller thinks the hog acquired the whisky
habit of drinking the distillery slop,
on which he was fed for a long time. No attempt will be made to break him of the habit.

Strict Execution of Law.

an order that dogs shall be muzzled during the hot weather, the police carried off a whole pack of hounds, while hunting, for violation of the order.

And Then He Proposed.
There had been a brief interval of silence, and he felt that he ought to say something.
"I see that the students of sociology
have figured it out," he began, "that education—"
He paused, as if in doubt whether he ought to proceed.
"Yes," she said, encouragingly.
"—that education is having a bad
effect upon matrimony," he continued;
"especially the education of women."
"I never did believe in too much education," she said, softly.
She waited for him to speak, but he said nothing.
"I am glad I never knew my lessons,

A Tribute in the Memory of Prof. W.
L. Hawkins.
Died at the home of his son, S. J.
Hawkins, near Hartford, January 8, 1896, aged 68 years, 7 months and 12 days. The subject of this sketch was born near Hopkinsville, Christian county, May 26, 1829.
His father, who was an officer in the Revolutionary War, engaged in farming and merchandizing at that place for several years and then moved to Henderson where he continued in business until his death. Strother J., the father of Prof. Hawkins, married a Miss Gabriella Madison, who was, no doubt, related to Governor Gabriel Madison.

Prof. Hawkins moved to Ohio county in his early manhood where he engaged in teaching and few are the families in the county that some member of which has not been his pupil. He married Miss M. E. French, near Beda. Her mother was a Hudson, and her father David French,
who came from Lexington to this county and was one of the pioneer families of this county.

Mrs. Hawkins lived to the age of 65 years and only preceded her husband four and a half years.

Prof. Hawkins had been a consistent member of the Baptist Church for more than twenty years. He was baptized near Whitesville by old Bro.
Joel Ellis.
I have known Prof. Hawkins for 16 years. First as teacher then as mentor, counselor and friend, and can say of him I never was in his company
any length of time without learning something of value to me. As he remarked to me school only a few weeks before his death, while I was hearing
a class in history: "I am English to that extent myself, once and Englishman always and Englishman, once a pupil always a pupil," and when I pressed his hand on leaving at noon
on Tuesday forenoon, I felt that it was the last farewell of one of my best and truest friends. For to know him was to love him. His last days were surrounded by all the comforts and kind attentions that a loving son, a daughter-in-law and affectionate grand children could administer. A burden nearly borne, a duty nobly done.
"They have their rewards."

Three children survive him: S. J.
Hawkins, of near Hartford; Mrs. Gabriella Hunter, of Smallhouse, and Mrs. Annie Lashbrooks, of near Newville. Besides a large circle of friends and relatives mingle with them their tears. Sorrow nor dear friends for they only laid down the sword after a long and noble fight—a victory is assured. Over the pall of death I see the finger of hope pointing heavenward. "They have their rewards."

"How to Edit a Country Paper," by Farmer Cornshucks, would be as appropriate as an article, "How to Farm," by Editor One Idea. The average editor don't know a hoe from a sulky plow, nor a corn row from a sweet potato patch. He could not take a pair of mules to water without getting tangled up in the rope, and he couldn't tell the difference between young perley and a gourd vine.
Neither could the average farmer tell a comma from a handpress. The editor certainly knows whether he prefers roasting ears or pumpkins to eat, and a farmer knows what kind of a newspaper he likes the best, yet one is inseparable to the existence of the other. An editor would be possumbrained idiot to quit eating biscuit because the farmers raised hay, likewise the farmer would be a pitiable collection of lunacy to quit a good paper because the editor says something he doesn't like.

Hartford Republican

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING
By SAM A. ANDERSON, Editor.
Subscription, $1.25 per year.
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1896.

SPEAKER Blanford and Hon. C. M. Barnett seem to be in cahoot.

ANOTHER oration from Hon. Cy Brown, of Christian county, is in order.

It will be the boom that booms in June that will wear the laurel wreath of success.

Mrs. General Grant celebrated her seventieth birthday the other day. She is in excellent health.

Bro. Howard, of the good county of Butler, is making his mark. Great men are quite numerous in Butler.

The best thing that can be said of the State of Kentucky, is that it is not under Democratic control.

The Republicans in Congress, being now provided with a Cannon in both House and Senate, are ready for the battle to open.

The death of Hon. Theodore Runyon, U. S. Ambassador to Germany, gives Mr. Cleveland another $17,000 position to dispose of.

A silver Convention is to be held in St. Louis on July 22nd. The rest of the Democratic party will hold its Convention in Chicago.

The office of Register of the Land Office is entirely useless and is a great expense to the State. The quicker it is abolished the better.

The fight for the Republican nomination for President, so far, is between Speaker Reed and ex-Governor McKinley, with McKinley easily leading.

It can be said of all those who sent in solutions to the Courier-Journal prize story and who failed to obtain a prize, that their foresight was not as good as their hindsight.

PRINCE Battenburg, who had never received anything but abuse from the English press, would have died happy if he could have known all the good things that same press would say of him.

The worst abuse that President Cleveland has yet received came from Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, who boasts of Haynes and Calhoun. Things have changed and are passing strange.

BETWEEN Senator Blackburn and P. Wat Hardin on one hand, and Mr. Henry Watterson and his crowd on the other, the Democratic party bids fair to be great, only, in "that strange spell, a name."

EVERY young man in this country where opportunities for rising are so great, should have high aspirations. Of course some must fail, but he who never tries will never succeed. "Not failure, but low aim is crime."

To be a successful business man, says Jno. Wannamaker, you must be up to the times and advertise. Just so, if you do not let the people know you are in business and have bargains how can you expect them to deal with you.

MAJ. McKinley's Presidential boom is in fine condition. It will require hustling among his opponents to prevent his nomination, if the signs of the times read correctly, and it is not to be apprehended that they are far wrong.

The Louisville Commercial claims that the Louisville Post is not good Republican authority. Does the Commercial now claim to be good Republican authority? If so when did it become such and how long will it remain such?

The masses of the Democratic party in this State are for free silver. The sound money element, though largely in the minority, are running the party, or, at least, trying to, all of which shows as how the tail can sometimes wag the dog.

The Courier-Journal of January 28th said: "Yesterday was as dark as the days of Hunter." Very true, perhaps! But then it was not so dark as the gloom that settled over the Democracy of the State last November. The darkest of days is not so dark as that.

WHERE are the eternal principles of Democracy now? Mr. Watterson says that his views of the financial question are Democratic, and Brer. Blackburn says so are his. Which is right? Well—both are wrong. The Democratic party has no principles worth mentioning.

THOSE Armenian resolutions adopted by Congress will probably be regarded by the Governments of Great Britain, Austria, France, Italy, Russia and Turkey, as one of the most extraordinary cases of international meddling on record. Yet, there is little doubt that every word in those resolutions is in accord with the public sentiment of this country.

WISDOM'S CURE FOR CROUP, COUGHS, BRONCHITIS, AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS.
SOLD EVERYWHERE.

THAT the Commonwealth Attorney's office should be abolished and the place filled by the County Attorney, does not meet with universal approbation.

HON. E. Dudley Walker, our distinguished fellow citizen, is a possible Democratic candidate for Congress. The Democrats of the District would make no mistake if they nominated Mr. Walker. As between Democrats we are for Mr. Walker to be sure. We would regret to see him nominated, however, from the simple reason that we do not wish to see him made a sacrifice lamb. Even his quaint ability or his gray hairs would not save him. Hon. John W. Lewis would give him such a walloping as he never dreamed of.

HON. John W. Lewis, who re-deemed the 4th District in a gallant fight against Montgomery, is a candidate for re-election to Congress. Mr. Lewis is very popular with the people of this District and it will go without saying that he will have no opposition for the nomination. The Democrats are beginning to look around for their strongest man to put forth against him, and well may they do so. Jno. W. Lewis is the peer of any Democratic statesman in the 4th District and when the vote is counted next November his majority will be greater than it was in his last election.

JERKS.
In the early history of the State, itinerant ministers were not so numerous as now. As a result their circuits were larger and their labors much more burdensome. The experiences related by these old soldiers of the Cross, are in some instances most thrilling. The most noted among the early Methodist pioneers, was Peter Cartwright. In his anti-biography he relates some incidents that would astound a modern Methodist preacher. His description of the Jerks is highly interesting. The young members of protestant churches probably have never heard tell of such a thing as the Jerks. Our fathers, or at least our grandfathers, know all about them.

When this country was being settled; when the sound of the settlers' axe was often accompanied by the yell of the savage, or the scream of a "painter," we had revivals that were revivals. The gospel in that day and time was not pounded into the ear of a tired people. They would go ten miles or more to attend a camp meeting. When a person became convicted of sin at one of these meetings, he was all broken up. He was penitent. He went forward to the anxious seat and pleaded long and earnestly for forgiveness. It was at those old time revivals that the people had the Jerks. A sinner under conviction, or a professor would become so excited that he could not control his muscular system, hence his arms and legs would draw up suddenly and his head would jerk to and fro. It was this peculiar involuntary action of a person that was called Jerks. Cartwright gives some amusing examples of such cases.

A certain woman he says was at the altar when the spirit began to work upon her and she was seized with the Jerks. Her hair which was platted, finally came down, and at every Jerk of her head her long plait of hair would crack like a black snake whip.

Another person who was attending one of Cartwright's meetings, being under conviction, went out into his field to have a season of prayer. He got down on his knees in the midst of a patch of weeds. Before he had prayed very long he was seized with the Jerks, and before he had gotten over them, he had mashed down weeds over a space of ten feet square.

Every one should read the autobiography of Peter Cartwright in order that he become acquainted with the doings of early protestant ministers.

FRANKFORT.

News Around the Capital as Viewed by an Ohio County Man.

An Effort Being Made to get Judge Pulliam Pardoned.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 4.

There are many objects which paineth the eye to behold and maketh the heart sick to contemplate. Both organs must undergo torture, if affairs in and about the Capital are objects of anxious inspection.

The Senatorial deadlock necessitating a daily ballot always resulting about the same as the preceding ballot is becoming monotonous indeed. To-day's ballot resulted in a small ballot on a point of order between Senator Bronston, of Fayette, and Senator Worthington. It seems that Representative Johns, of Floyd, wished to change from something by dropping McCreary and voting for Blackburn, and in connection in explanation of his vote, Gov. Worthington thought he was not confining himself to one explanation simply, but indulging in a regular speech, so ordered the balloting to proceed. Bronston raised the point of order and a general wrangle ensued. Last evening the Republicans held a caucus under lock and key, and this morning I see the Courier-Journal contains the entire proceedings, including a set speech from Dr. Hunter, embodying a suggestion or order from Hunter, to the effect that two Democrats must be unseated at once.

Your correspondent two hours since, not only approached Dr. Hunter on the subject, but various Republican members and all concur in stating that not a word of truth is contained in the article in the Courier-Journal.

It is thought the object of the article is to arouse the prejudice of Sound Money members to such a degree they will drop any body and vote for Blackburn, or at least our grandfathers, know all about them.

Your correspondent visited the penitentiary on yesterday and met with ex-Judge Matt Pulliam, of Breckinridge county, now and for several years past serving out a sentence in the prison. Pulliam seems to be as happy and contented as one can well be with his surroundings. He has the consolation of knowing that he has friends, not only in Breckinridge county, but over the entire State.

Our own excellent Representative, Barnett, in connection with Speaker Blanford, of Breckinridge; Rice, of Grayson; Senator James and others have been interesting themselves in his behalf, and from the best information I can get his pardon in the near future is a foregone conclusion.

Pie hunting is the order of the day to a great extent with a majority of the numerous visitors in and about the Capital. How many applicants for the various positions I do not know, but I am satisfied they are numerous. Who will win? ah! who?

Judge Brown for Circuit Judge.
Judge Eli H. Brown has announced to his friends that he will be in the race for circuit Judge next year. The election does not take place until November, 1897 Judge Brown, while not contemplating an active canvass at the present time, deemed it wise to let his intentions be known. He has an extensive acquaintance in all the four counties composing the district, and a wide reputation as able and profound jurist.—[Owensboro Inquirer.]

SULPHUR SPRINGS.
After a great deal of clever diplomacy upon the part of the friends of both parties, the Green-Phallen debate has been indefinitely postponed.

Mr. A. S. Aull will soon have completed a large, nice business house at this place.

A building committee, consisting of C. F. Boswell, George Neighbors and E. G. Kirby, is rapidly pushing the work on a new Methodist Church, near New Bayms.

A few nights ago some party, or parties, forced an entrance to Renfrow Bros. store, at Narrows, and prized open the cash drawer and secured about $400 in silver. They also searched the ticket, and postoffice, but finding no money left the officers without taking stamps or other property. No goods were stolen. John Renfrow was sleeping on the second floor at the time but was not awakened by the thieves.

Unlike most proprietary medicines, the formulae of Dr. J. C. Ayer's Sarsaparilla and other preparations are cheerfully sent to any physician who applies for them. Hence the special favor accorded these well-known standard remedies by the world's Fair commissioners.

Dr. James Takes the Floor.
FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 30.
In the Senate to-day, when Senator Bronston's remarkable resolution to investigate Dr. Hunter's citizenship came up, Dr. James at once challenged the resolution. He stated that such a thing had never been heard of before, but alone introduced into a grave legislative body, like the Legislature of Kentucky. When James B. Beck was nominated for the Senate, no questions of this kind were ever thought of, much less raised, and it was a well-known fact that he was of foreign birth. Every one honored the name of Beck to-day. He wished to characterize this measure as an imputation upon the man who had been sworn in as a number of the Legislature of Kentucky twenty-three years ago, and repeatedly returned to this body, and three times elected to Congress. Each time he swore that he was a citizen of Kentucky. It was unworthy of the men who had introduced it. It was a confession of defeat. It was a matter with which this body had nothing to do. It was none of their business if Dr. Hunter was elected, the Senate of the United States was the only tribunal who had a right to ask such a question.

Cataract in the Head.
Is due to impure blood and cannot be cured with local applications. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured hundreds of cases of catarrh because it purifies the blood and in this way removes the cause of the disease. It also builds up the system and prevents attacks of pneumonia, diphtheria and typhoid fever.

Hood's Pills become the favorite cathartic with every one who tries them. 25c.

Notice Teachers and Teachers.
I will necessarily be absent from my office some during the next two or three months, and have selected Saturdays and the First Monday in each month and the week following the First Monday as my office days. Those desiring to see me will find me at my office on those days and at such other times as my business does not call me away. Z. H. SHULTZ, Co. Supt.

This testimonial is unsolicited and for the benefit of humanity. My daughter has been subject to severe colds and croup and often taken with violent coughing spells at night. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is the only preparation I have found that will relieve her. I think it is necessary in the home hold as a household preserver on a steamboat. Res'y.

Owensboro Messenger.
We notice an article in the Messenger of one day last week to cast reflection on Mr. Geo. L. Motter as a musician and christian worker in his relation to Rev. Jas. E. Wolford, of Louisville. For fifteen years Mr. Motter played for operas, balls, private dances and saloons and gambling hells. During that time he was considered an accomplished musician but just as soon as he began to blow his lungs for the glory of his God he is attacked by the Owensboro Messenger. This however, is no surprise to those who know it best as it has been on the trail of men of God for some time.

To be sure from all we read in the blood thunder Messenger we would not be a bit surprised to wake up some morning and read that the good editor had plowed up hell with a bob-tailed rat and pineshingle. Knowing the ability of the Messenger to wake up all the trash in creation we refrain from resurrecting "hot slaws," "cold slaws," or any other kind of slaws, but simply cry, if any thing could be found more closely allied to the bottomless pit of the interests of his Saviour's Majesty we know not where it can be found.

REDA.
A. Godshaw went to Owensboro Sunday and returned Monday.

Clara Bennett is visiting her sister in Owensboro this week.

Rev. W. E. Cook returned home Monday.

W. H. H. was the guest of his sister in this place Tuesday.

Robert and Jentry Davis went to Owensboro with a load of tobacco Friday.

Henry Godshaw who has been in Bowling Green for the past year has returned.

Prof. I. L. Elmore who taught the public school at this place has removed to Owensboro where he has secured an agency in an Insurance Company. May he have success in his new work is the wish of his pupils.

Louis Iglehart and Mr. Bryant, Marshall county, are the guests of Thomas Carson, No Creek, this week.

A series of meetings will begin at the M. E. Church South at this place Saturday night Feb 8th and will be conducted by Drs. C. F. Williams and Charles Rogers.

Charles Leach, Sulphur Springs, was here on business last Saturday.

MARS.
The tobacco business is on a boom at this place.

Died, Jan 10th, near Smallhouse, Mr. Vester Faught. He was a good citizen and will be greatly missed.

Mr. Frank Bratcher, Rockport, will move here soon.

HARDINSBURG.

Personals and Items of Interest from the Capital of Breckinridge.

HARDINSBURG, Feb. 5, '96.

Mr. Frank Haswell is at home from an extended trip in Eastern Kentucky.

Mr. H. C. Murray and Miss Lamar of Cloverport were in the city Friday.

John P. Haswell Jr., Barbel Beard and County Court Clerk Owen Cunningham were in Frankfort last week.

Another disaster occurred on the L. H. & W. R. R. last week. The track spread and the coaches were thrown off. Several passengers were aboard, all of whom were well shaken, but no one was injured.

Circuit Clerk R. S. Skillman is able to be at his office again, after having been confined to his room several days with a very bad cold.

Professor Joel Pile, who teaches at Glendale this county, had several of his pupils before the County Board of examiners last week for the purpose of passing an examination, in the common school branches.

The following pupils from a distance, recently matriculated with the Breckinridge Normal College viz: Miss Katie Mattingly, St. Joseph Ky. Katie Harned and Mr. Roy Harned of Hudson Ky; Miss Mabel Stith, Hill Grove Ky; Mr. Clifton Payne, Harned Ky and Miss Della Atwood, county.

Miss Lillie Scott has returned from an extended visit to friends at Cloverport.

Miss Nellie Parks, a charming young Missourian, who has been visiting friends in this county, returned this week to her home at New Madrid.

Two gentlemen named Laslie and Roberts living out at West View, before the court Saturday for disturbing the peace. The lie was passed and a blow was struck. Mr. Laslie was asked to pay four dollars for the part he played in the affair, and the case was continued as to Mr. Roberts because of the absence of witnesses for the commonwealth.

Mrs. Nancy Skillman, an aged and respected lady of Cloverport, died last week. She was ninety-two years of age, and the mother of some of our most highly respected and influential citizens. Among them are Mr. A. B. Skillman cashier of the Breckinridge Bank, and Mr. James T. Skillman a tobaccoist of Cloverport. Her daughters were Mrs. John Allen Murray and Mrs. Hayden Webb, both now dead, and Mrs. McGarock.

It is thought that Hon. D. R. Murray of this county will be among those who want the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district this year. Mr. Murray is a man of superior ability; an accomplished orator, and an excellent lawyer. He is a strong advocate of free silver.

Miss Anna Bassett of this place has gone to the Lucy Webb Hayes training school at Washington D. C. where she will prepare herself for missionary work. The school is operated by the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The colored public school at this place closed last Friday. The school was taught by Professor Robinson assisted by Miss Dora Maxwell, a public entertainment was given by the school Friday night, at the colored Methodist Church. The exercises consisted of songs, recitations, addresses etc., and were highly creditable to both teacher and pupils.

Mr. S. E. Smith, a prominent colored Republican of Owensboro, has announced himself a candidate for delegate at-large to the National Convention at St. Louis. It is customary for one of our delegates at-large to be a colored man. This is proper and just. The colored man it is true is greatly in let to the Republican party for the freedom that he now enjoys. But they have nobly and bravely stood by the party, both in time of adversity and prosperity. They have demanded little at the hands of the party, and have received little. However they richly deserve recognition and should have it. Mr. Smith is a representative man of his race, an excellent preacher and a successful educator. He has done much to improve his people. We think Mr. Smith is the man for the place.

ROBIN HOOD.

The tobacco business is on a boom at this place.

Died, Jan 10th, near Smallhouse, Mr. Vester Faught. He was a good citizen and will be greatly missed.

Mr. Frank Bratcher, Rockport, will move here soon.

Mr. Viven, Centertown, has moved to the Edmund Rowe farm.

Miss Nellie Robinson, Smallhouse, is visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Mr. John H. Wood returned from DePaw University Saturday and opened school here Monday.

ANSWERS.

I C. Adair, Cashier of the Fordville Bank and general financier, spent a few days with relatives here this week.—[Hancock Clarion.]

Gave New Life

Sick Headache and Neuralgia Cured by Hood's.
"Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me a great deal of good. I have been a sufferer from sick headache and neuralgia nearly all my life. The pains had become so intense that I could not sleep. The doctor told me I must have a little help for me. The different medicines tried had greatly disheartened me. Since using two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I have realized relief, so much so that I feel like a new person. Our little boy has been troubled with his throat but since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, soreness and hoarseness have gone and he is better in health." Mrs. MATTIE GUP-TON, Duketown, Tennessee. OHIO CO. BANK.

A New Financial Institution Established by a Popular Gentleman.

Some Notes Concerning the Manager.

CAPT. COX AT HIS OLD TRADE.

Since Capt. Cox began the new building on the corner there have been various speculations as to what would be done with the building, but all doubts have been removed by the announcement that the proprietor would open up a general banking business in the corner building and the store room would be occupied by the popular firm of Fair Bros. & Co.

Monday morning the doors were opened and Capt. Cox appeared behind the counter in his usual happy mood, ready to accommodate his old friends and patrons.

Capt. Cox has always been regarded as a substantial business man, and to-day is a great friend to the old soldiers. During his connection with the Bank of Hartford he made that one of the most popular banking houses in the State, which reputation it still maintains. Below we give a good likeness of Capt. Cox, together with a short biography.

Capt. Cox was born and reared in Hawesville, Ky., and came to Hartford 36 years ago. He entered the County Clerk's Office as Deputy Clerk and afterwards wrote in the office at Morgantown with F. M. Allison and was living there at the commencement of the war, when he enlisted in the gallant Seventeenth Kentucky Infantry as a private soldier and was promoted three times and finally came out as Captain of Co. A. He served three years and seven months without the loss of a day from his Regiment.

On his return from the army he again entered the Clerk's office as Deputy under Judge R. S. Moseley. and in 1870 was elected to the responsible position as Clerk; was re-elected 1874 and again in 1878. He was also Master Commissioner for about 8 years of the Ohio Circuit Court.

Retiring from the Clerk's office in 1881 he together with the late Hon. H. D. McHenry organized the Bank of Hartford, and was connected with that Bank as Cashier and President until January 1895, when he sold his stock and commenced work for his present building.

Capt. Cox was Paymaster General of the State Troops during the administration of Gov. Buckner, with the rank of Colonel. He was also appointed a Commissioner from Kentucky by Gov. Brown to assist in locating the ruins of the Kentucky Troops on the battlefield of Chickamauga. He is now a member of the Board of Trustees of Hartford College and is Treasurer of the Board.

John Baker Acquitted.

The Owensboro Messenger says: "After deliberating for several hours yesterday the jury in the case of Rev. John H. Baize, of Ohio county, charged with forgery in the alteration of a $100 bill to secure a pension for Henry Her, returned a verdict of not guilty, and the defendant was discharged. The case was tried at the last term and resulted in a hung jury."

and Trading Company,

100 BROADWAY, NEW YORK CITY.

OUR COUNTRY NEEDS IT—GOLD!

The principal objects of this company are to buy, sell and operate gold mines.

Perhaps you cannot afford to buy an entire gold mine, but you can have an interest in several valuable ones through us.

Enormous fortunes have been made in gold mining, but never were the opportunities greater than they are to-day.

The ownership of a few shares of our stock may make you rich.

Some of the wealthiest men of to-day became so through mining. The cry of the whole world is for Gold! and its value and necessity is being more fully appreciated each day.

All precious mineral discoveries are practically gifts to the people. Each person is entitled to what he can fairly get. Why not try for yourself through us now?

Splendid opportunities for securing great bargains in mines come to us constantly. Our agents are reporting from the gold fields of this continent and from Africa. The company owns two promising properties in Cripple Creek. We propose to develop one of the most remarkable, well-proven placer mines in the world. It has already produced about $2,000,000 by crude surface working, and is estimated to contain over $25,000,000 in gold.

Now is the time to invest with us. Do not wait until every man, woman and child is eager to buy and prices have advanced enormously.

A CURABLE DISEASE.

Chronic Catarrh is Pronounced Curable by Dr. Hartman.

There are an almost countless number of remedies said to cure chronic catarrh. The most of these are of no use whatever, and many worse than useless, being actually harmful. A few are successful in a small number of cases—those which are very slight and easily curable—cases which might almost get well by simply taking care not to catch cold again. But of all this vast multitude of medicines it can not be said that there are more than two or three which are actually specified, and without doubt the most reliable is Pe-ru-na. It always cures when it is faithfully and conscientiously used. It not only cures catarrh of the head and throat, but catarrh of the stomach, liver, bowels, lungs, bronchial tubes, kidneys, and in fact any of the organs of the human body. It is indeed a dreadful case of catarrh, wherever located, that Pe-ru-na can not cure, or at least greatly help. It may be procured at all the drug stores, and it should be given faithful trial by those who have tried in vain elsewhere to get relief.

A book on catarrh and catarrhal disease of 64 instructively illustrated pages will be sent free to any address by The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, Ohio.

Our Attorney General.

The many friends of Judge Taylor will be pleased to learn that his predictions of his success in the Attorney General's office are being fully verified. He has commenced his work in the right way. The old Commonwealth needs every cent due her and we may rest assured her interest in such matters will be faithfully looked after. Below is a clipping from Frankfort correspondence of the Louisville Commercial under date of January 15, which speaks for itself:

The new Attorney General is settling down to steady, hard work, and is earning his salary in the way the voters expected that he would. This morning is the Franklin Circuit Court he got a judgment for the Commonwealth against B. M. Carr, Sheriff of Morgan county, for over $1,000 of back taxes for the year 1894. Attorney General Taylor is one of the most efficient officers that the Commonwealth has ever had, and he is a quiet gentleman, who will make friends of those who come in contact with him, either officially or socially. His ability as a lawyer is of the highest order, and he is a man of wonderful industry and determination. The rights of the Commonwealth will be protected while he is the chief law officer of the State.—[Green River Republican.]

E. W. Bagby, a prominent lawyer of Paducah, Ky., says that Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey cured his children of whooping cough when all things else failed. It is a new remedy for coughs. Guaranteed by all dealers. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro., druggist and Renfrow Bros., Narrows, Ky.

Postell's Appointment.

Those who are blaming Governor Bradley for the appointment of John Postell as Stewart at the Western Asylum and censuring him so bitterly for insisting upon his confirmation would do well to place themselves for a moment in the chief executive's place and ask themselves what they would have done with the application coming with such endorsements. A glance at the signatures appended to Postell's application shows the names of the most prominent Republicans in this section. Is the Governor to assume that they did not sign Postell's application in good faith? If any sin has been done it seems to us that the Governor is more sinned against than sinning.

Postell's appointment was made on the recommendation of the following prominent Christian county Republicans:

John P. Prows, Clerk of County Court; Mc J. Davis, Sheriff of Christian county; Wyatt Watt, A. H. Anderson, District Chairman; ex-Senator J. W. Downer; H. H. Goley, Deputy Sheriff; E. P. Wilkins, Deputy Sheriff; J. B. Everett, Assessor; Frank Prows, Deputy Clerk; John W. Breathitt, County Judge; Jas. Allensworth, Coroner; J. M. Starling, Clerk Circuit Court; C. A. Brasher, Deputy Clerk; A. C. Brent, T. A. Phillips, Allen Trosper, Ned Turner, W. T. Fowler, H. W. Breathitt, Polk Cansler, ex-Representative; James Breathitt, Circuit Judge.

Jas. F. Rogers, Wm. Robins and M. H. Meyer, all applicants for Stewart, withdrew their claims and urged the appointment of Postell.—[Hopkinsville Independent.]

The theory in the treatment of coughs, lung and bronchial affections has been advanced by the manufacturers of Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. It is a truly a wonderful remedy. All dealers sell it on a positive guarantee. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro., druggist, and Renfrow Bros., Narrows, Ky.

To Pensioners.

Pensioners have been given warning by Mr. Adams, the Pension Agent for this State, that vouchers for their payment will, under a recent ruling of the Commissioner of Pensions, go to the Dead Letter office unless the postage on them is sufficiently prepaid. It seems that it has grown to be a habit among some officials, before whom pensioners execute their vouchers, to put a number of them into an envelope and put only enough postage stamps on them to give them a right way through the mails. Of course, this is a swindle on the pensioners, who pay for their postage, and it compels Major Adams and other pension agents to pay postage on such vouchers to the amount of $100 or more a year, which, by the way, is not lost to the Government, but goes into the Post-office Department as revenue, and is charged as an expense to the Pension Bureau.

It is an abuse that ought to be corrected, but it shows the little regard, or sympathy, entertained for pensioners by the present administration of the Pension Bureau, that, without any warning to the pensioners themselves their vouchers, which cost them time and money to execute should be dumped into the Dead Letter Office and they be compelled to wait, without explanation, for what is in many cases a distressing time before they can find out what is the matter, and all for the sake of saving a few well-paid clerks a little figuring.

In the mean time all pensioners had better see to the proper payment of postage on their own vouchers.—[Louisville Commercial.]

The Mortgage.

A mortgage makes a man rustle and it keeps him poor. It is a strong incentive to action, and a wholesome reminder of the fleeting months and years. It is fully as symbolical in its meaning as the hour-glass and scythe that means death. A mortgage represents industry, because it is never idle night or day. It is like a bosom friend, because the greater the adversity the closer it sticks to a fellow. It is like a brave soldier, for it never hesitates at charges no fears to close in on the enemy. It is like the sand-bag of the thug, silent in application, but deadly in effect. It is like the hand of Providence, it spreads all over creation and its influence is everywhere visible. It is like the grasp of the devilfish—the longer it holds the greater its strength. It will exercise feeble energies, and lend activity to a sluggish man; but no matter how debtors work, the mortgage works harder still. A mortgage is a good thing to have in a family—provided, always, it is somebody else's family.—[Truth.]

The Southern School says: "Senator Hayward, the learned and classical chairman of the Senate committee on education, delivered a much-complimented address on the character of the hero of New Orleans, on the 8th of January, in response to a resolution of invitation by the State Senate. Hon. J. G. Bailey, chairman of the House committee, though only twenty-seven, has already established a reputation as one of the most eloquent men in the State.

Muhlenberg County. The Central City Republican says: Miss Lula Johnson visited in Beaver one evening this week.

Mrs. Will P. Scott and little daughter, Marguerite, after a visit of several weeks to Mr. Scott's parents in Hopkins county, have returned home.

We thing (?) Marvin Bean, of Hartford was in town Sunday and Sunday night.

On Sunday last the people gathered at the church to hear the Rev. W. D. Cox, of evangelical fame but he not arriving, the people were treated to a spicy discourse from the Rev. Samuel Brown, of Cherry Hill. Mr. Brown although young in the ministry, is well posted on scripture and bids fair to make his mark as a minister.

Gov. Bradley has recommended the appointment of Dr. A. F. Stanley to the position of third assistant in the Western Kentucky Asylum. The place of second assistant is given Katharine Hauser. The communication was sent to the Senate on Tuesday.

The public school in District 81, and under the control of Prof. E. K. Shultz, closed last Tuesday. Prof. Shultz and his able assistant, Miss DeWitt, have been untiring in their efforts to make the school a success, which has been clearly demonstrated. Prof. Shultz will begin a subscription school in the same building on next Monday morning, and we understand will have a full school.

Miss DeWitt, by close attention to her work has proven quite an able assistant and was loved and honored by her pupils. Miss DeWitt has by her lady like deportment during her stay here won a place in the hearts of the Central City people that will be long remembered.

Prof. Decker Wellborn closed the public school in District 33, on last Monday. Prof. Wellborn has proven himself to be not only a thoroughly competent instructor, but one of our best citizens. He has in his quiet, modest way managed and controlled his school in a manner that has proven an honor to his profession, and would doubtless have the hearty endorsement of his patrons.

Miss Johnson, his able assistant, has proved herself to be not only a thoroughly competent instructor, but one of the most highly cultured young ladies of the day, well up in all the leading and latest studies of the public school. Out of a number of solicitations Miss Johnson has accepted a call to assist in the Fordville school which will begin in a short time. To the good people of Fordville who may be unacquainted with Miss Johnson, we will say that they will find her to be a teacher well qualified for her position and a young lady that will prove a bright and shining star in the social circle of any community, and carries with her the best wishes of a host of friends in this city.

Good Old Granny Metcalf, 86 years old, living at 618 Monroe street, Paducah, Ky., says that Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is the best grip cure, cough, lung and bronchial remedy that has been offered to the people during her life. Guaranteed by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro., druggist, and Renfrow Bros., Narrows, Ky.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Callouet, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with LaGrippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it. Get a free trial at Williams & Bell's Drug Store.

"John, you have been drinking." The words fell cruelly upon the blushing man's senses. They were true. He could not deny them. As yet he wondered. On top of that little drink he had carefully placed one glass of ice-water, two olives, three crackers, a liberal portion of cheese, two cloves, six grains of coffee, three spices, one soda-miner, and in addition thereto he had smoked a cigar. He could only turn his head aside and say: "What's the good of anything?"—Judge.

The African-American Gold Mining and Trading Company.

Apromps of the present mining boom—a boom which by the way promises to be of a permanent character—the announcement of the African-American Gold Mining and Trading Company—is interesting in that it opens up a new field of operations, affording those who desire to invest in this class of securities an opportunity to do so upon a perfectly safe basis, and according to a plan which promises profitable results.

The objects of this Company, according to the prospectus before us "are to buy, sell and operate gold mines." It already possesses the right title and interest to a number of rich gold bearing properties in the famous Cripple Creek district, which is now producing ore to the amount of $1,000,000 monthly, and no reason exists so far as we are able to state, why those who invest in the shares of the Company should not obtain good profits. As a general thing, as our readers will bear us witness, we are inclined to look askance at enterprises of this kind but in the present case we believe we are justified in departing from that rule. The Company is properly organized, is composed of gentlemen of experience and responsibility and has something tangible upon which to work. In view of these facts it seems fair to approve of the Company's offer to sell 50,000 shares of its capital stock at the par value of $10 per share, as constituting a rare opportunity for an excellent investment. Further particulars can be obtained by addressing Mr. Austin Gallagher, the secretary of the Company, at 100 Broadway, this city.—[From the New York Financial Review, January 7th, 1896.]

THE NAME OF THE NEXT PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Will be Announced in The N. Y. WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

Of November 4, 1896.

Public interest will steadily increase, and the disappointment of the men whose votes turned the scales at the last election, with the results under the administration they elected, will make the campaign the most extensively exciting in the history of the country.

THEN Y. WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

The leading Republican family newspaper of the United States, will publish all the political news of the day, interesting to every American citizen regardless of party affiliations.

Also general news in attractive form, foreign correspondence covering the news of the world, an agricultural department second to none in the country, market reports which are recognized authority, fascinating short stories, complete in each number, the cream of the humorous papers, foreign and domestic, with their best comic pictures, fashion plates and elaborate descriptions of women's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interests. The "New York Weekly Tribune" is an ideal family paper, with a circulation larger than that of any other weekly publication in the country issued from the office of a daily. Large changes are being made in its details, tending to give it greater life and variety, and especially more interest to the women and young people of the household.

A SPECIAL CONTRACT enables us to offer this splendid journal and THE REPUBLICAN for

ONE YEAR $1.25 in Advance

(The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.25)
